

the SOCIAL World
EDNA CLOYD, Editor

NOV. 24, 1955 TORRANCE HERALD Eleven

(Crotty Studio Photo)

MRS. DONALD R. BOULTING
... Exquisitely Gowned

Beautiful Nuptials Unite
Mary K. Dodds-R. D. Boulting

Autumn shades of royal blue and American beauty red lent charm of color to the beauty of the wedding of Miss Mary Kathryn Dodds who became the bride of Donald Robert Boulting in a 4 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon in the Nativity Catholic Church.

Before the altar banked with bouquets of white flowers and floor baskets of white chrysanthemums flanking the chancel, the Rev. Robert Glynn read the double ring ceremony before 200 relatives and friends.

As guests were being seated by Stan Powell, Danny Williams and Jerry Lang, a program of organ music was played by Miss Shirley Moody with L. J. Fives singing "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

First to lead the bridal party down the white carpeted aisle where pews were marked by bows of white satin ribbon, was the maid of honor, Alicia Gatti in an American beauty red gown of tulle over taffeta, originally styled with a pleated shoulder line, long torso and full skirt. Her picture hat of sheer net, lace mitts and shoes were in the matching shade and she carried red tinted carnations.

Following were the three bridesmaids in similar styled gowns of royal blue with matching picture hats, shoes and mitts and bouquets of carnations in the royal blue shade. They were Jann Helthold, Donna Boulting, and Caroline Butterfield. Serving as best man for the bridegroom was Dale Williams.

Prettily scattering rose petals in the path of the bride was little Debbie Butterfield in a floor length frock of sheer net with double flounced skirt and matching poke bonnet. Her

FIRST HOLIDAY
Arno Mehling, German exchange student, will eat his first Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Melville, 1512 El Prado. Present will be the Melville children, Bill, Suzanne and Margot. Mr. Edgar Kohn whom the German student made friends with at the Melville's summer home on Catalina, will also be a guest.

(Portrait by Seeman)

MRS. RICHARD C. NIEMAN
... Recites Vows

Gustafson-Nieman Rites
Read at Lutheran Church

The First Lutheran Church of Torrance was the scene of the marriage of Miss Marilyn Gustafson and Richard C. Nieman last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Paul Wenske officiating.

The bride who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gustafson of 427 E. 189 St., recited nuptial vows in a gown of white, French lace over satin in the ballerina length. Her finger tip veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a white orchid surrounded by white carnations.

Miss Pat Ginevan attended the bride as maid of honor wearing a gown of aqua net over taffeta and carrying yellow carnations.

Frank Nieman attended the bridegroom and ushers were Dorsey Nieman and B. Boskovic.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. C. White at the organ played a medley of bridal music which included "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

A reception for 140 guests followed the nuptial service.

The newlyweds will make their home in Torrance upon their return from a honeymoon in Sequoia. Bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey H. Nieman of Gardena.

(Portrait by Seeman)

MRS. RICHARD O. THOMURE
... Lovely Bride

Joan Davis Becomes Bride
Of Richard O. Thomure

Miss Joan Marie Davis became the bride of Richard O. Thomure in an 8 o'clock formal ceremony Saturday evening in the First Lutheran Church of Long Beach.

The bride who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Davis, Jr. of 21336 Caroldale Ave., repeated nuptial vows in a gown of white lace and tulle over satin, designed with a fitted bodice, full skirt and detailed with a lace and tulle apron effect at the front. Her finger tip veil was worn with a crown of pearls and sequins and she carried orchids and white roses, cascaded with ribbon streamers.

Her four attendants wore taffeta gowns styled alike with tulle jackets, long torsos and full skirts in varying shades of green, beginning with a Kelly green of the maid of honor's gown to a pastel green of the flower girl's frock. Maid of honor and bridesmaids were Linda and Carolyn Davis, sisters of the bride and Dianna Osborne.

Their flowers were yellow and white carnations. The flower girl, Kathleen Thomure, niece of the bridegroom, carried yellow rose petals in a white basket tied with green ribbon.

Carrying the rings to the altar on white satin pillows were Henry Davis and Clifford Thomure young brothers of the bride couple. Serving his brother as best man was Ralph Thomure and ushering were Adrian Watson, Bob Bolling and James Cobb.

The double ring rites were read by the Rev. E. Passo between floor baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums, lighted by tall tapers in white standards.

After the ceremony, 200 guests gathered for a reception in the church hall.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Banning High School. She of the class of '55 and he '54. They are at home at 413 E. Carson St., Torrance.

MRS. EDWARD STOUT
... Petite Bride

Faye Wallen-Edward Stout
Nuptials Read November 11

In a picturesque setting of baskets of white flowers and candelabra, Miss Faye Wallen exchanged double ring vows with Edward Stout, in an evening ceremony, Nov. 11, in the First Methodist Church of Redondo. Family pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jensen, of 1221 Beech St., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stout, of 15317 Purche Ave., Gardena.

As guests were being seated by James Huber and Kenneth Stout, brother of the bridegroom, a program of bridal music was presented by Miss Ruth Larkin at the organ. She also accompanied Edward Davis who sang "Because," "Whither Thou Goest" and during the benediction, "The Lord's Prayer."

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the petite bride was lovely in a gown of frosted, brocade satin in the Dior blue shade. French lace slippers matched her gown. Her white fingertip veil was held by a white beaded bandeau and she carried a white prayer book topped with white roses and stephanotis.

Preceding her to the altar was maid of honor, Dawn Parry, wearing pale yellow taffeta styled with a long torso and full skirt. She wore a small, matching hat and carried bronze shaded carnations tied with matching streamers. Standing with the bridegroom was Rolie Wells.

Following the ceremony, the couple received guests at a reception in the church hall.

They are now at home at 1507 Madrid Ave., Torrance, following their return this week from a honeymoon in San Francisco.

The new Mrs. Stout is a graduate of Torrance High School and El Camino College. Her husband is a graduate of Gardena High School and later served overseas with the U.S. Army.

Decorations of yellow and white flowers were used and the refreshment table was centered with a large, white lace heart surrounded by flowers and lighted by white tapers.

Guests attending were Mmes., Ralph Allen, Lester Hardy, George Crabtree, all of Torrance. Mmes., Russell Johnson, mother of the benedict; Fred Rhyne and George Brown of Los Angeles, and Mrs. John Gudvangen.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mmes. Earl Wells, Merlin Cook and Ray Neeley.

DINNER GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. John Agapito and children, Debbie and Vince; Sgt. and Mrs. Leland Dean and daughter, Janet of Long Beach, will be guests Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean 2564 Torrance Blvd.

Mrs. William G. Hunter is Feted at Tea and Shower

Miss Jeannette Probert, now Mrs. William G. Hunter, was honored at a pink and white tea and miscellaneous shower held last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Robert Burns of 2224 Via Finole of the Palms Verdes Estates.

The guest of honor, assisted by Mrs. Patricia Cakbread who served as matron of honor or at her wedding Tuesday, opened gifts which had been cleverly arranged on a tea cart.

The new Mrs. Hunter was attired in a navy blue taffeta styled with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She and her mother were presented corsages by the hostess of cymbidiums for the honoree and pink roses for Mrs. Probert.

Following the gift opening, tea and dainty refreshments were served from the spacious dining room table picturesquely arranged with silver tea service and centered with a colorful grouping of pink chrysanthemums and roses around a large, gold wedding ring. The room reflected the soft light of tall, white tapers assembled on a buffet. Mrs. John McMillan presided over the tea service.

Guests representing families of the bridal couple who were present included: Mmes. George Probert, mother of the bride; Fred Schoepe, Frank Schoepe, Kevin Burns, Miss Ann James and Mrs. Thomas Ashe.

Also present were Mmes. Robert Bingham, Grover Whyte, Robert Deininger, Henry Ulbright, J. Klirk, Harvel Guttenfelder, Sidney Hopkins, Benjamin Roberts, Baker Smith, Frank Foster, Sam Levy, R. S. Bishop, Dean Sears, Jack Barrington, Helen Purdue, John McMillan, Wallace Post, Carl Warner, Howard Klegg, L. Mae Sherfrey and C. T. Rippy.

WELCOME SON

Second son for Mr. and Mrs. James W. Baxter, of 1710 W. 252 St., arrived Oct. 2 at 2:39 p.m., at Gardena Hospital. He had a birth weight of 5 lb. 15 1/2 ozs., and has been named James Wade. Making his acquaintance is 2 1/2 year old brother, Jayson Patrick. Grandparents are Mrs. Paul Schwab of Chualar, Calif.; James C. Baxter of Lomita and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Zickfoose of Altton, W. Va.

Patricia Merritt to Wed
David Draskowski Next Year

A summer wedding is being planned by Miss Patricia Merritt and David Draskowski.

Their engagement is being announced this week by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Merritt of 720 Acacia Ave.

The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Draskowski of 2130 Sepulveda Blvd.

Both are graduates of Torrance High School 1955 class and both are now attending El Camino College. While attending the local high school, Miss Merritt was junior senior prom queen, senior class secretary, Tartar Lady and life member of the Scholarship Society. Mr. Draskowski was a member of the varsity basketball team, Tartar Knight, Key Club and life member of the Scholarship Society.

Los Fiestadores Dance

Decorations emphasizing the fall theme were used effectively for the Thanksgiving Dance given by Los Fiestadores last Saturday evening at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro.

Committee for the dance was composed of Messrs. and Mmes., Walter Clausing, Rod Norris, Ralph Rugraff, Albert Posner, Morle Richardson, H. C. St. Martin, S. Wilson and Robert Triplitt.

Guests present were Messrs. and Mmes., Howard Hudson, J. A. Barrington, Taylor Whitney, Frank Van Dernagel, Frank Williams, Drs., and Mmes. Milford Bauman and Allen Pevatt.

Other guests were, Messrs. and Mmes., Mark McElvane, Lee McCoy, Les King, John Schwartz, Arnold Finstad, Henry Fink, Paul Loanger, Sam Neeley, Joe Eisenbrandt, Dean Sears, Charlton Mewborn and Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull.

The door prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilson.

Blackly, Booth Bolen, C. W. Roswell, William Christian, and R. Dexter.

Drs. and Mmes. Burt Easley, Gerald Eastham, Edwin Grubbs, Phil Holloran, Messrs. and Mmes., Warren Hamilton, Lloyd Jones, Walter Levey, Park Montague, Robert Morton, William Patterson, Albert Posner, Morle Richardson, H. C. St. Martin, S. Wilson and Robert Triplitt.

Guests present were Messrs. and Mmes., Howard Hudson, J. A. Barrington, Taylor Whitney, Frank Van Dernagel, Frank Williams, Drs., and Mmes. Milford Bauman and Allen Pevatt.

Other guests were, Messrs. and Mmes., Mark McElvane, Lee McCoy, Les King, John Schwartz, Arnold Finstad, Henry Fink, Paul Loanger, Sam Neeley, Joe Eisenbrandt, Dean Sears, Charlton Mewborn and Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull.

The door prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilson.

Linda Lou Hines Engaged
To David Kinkade Conry

A romance which flowered on the campus of Torrance High School this year, culminated in a promise of marriage between Miss Linda Lou Hines and David Kinkade Conry.

Miss Hines is a member of the junior class and the benedict is a senior. He was a member of the varsity football squad this season.

Bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Johnson, of 1221 Madrid Ave., and the prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Conry, of 2530 Lesserman Ave.

No date has been set for the wedding.

PATRICIA MERRITT
... Reveals Plans

LINDA LOU HINES
... Engaged